

2.10.2016 | EMERALD TEXTILES

Emerald Textiles announces Tom Gildred is Finalist in SDBJ 2016 Most Admired CEO Awards

The San Diego Business Journal will honor local CEOs for outstanding professional achievements and contributions to the community.

San Diego, California, February 10, 2016 – Emerald Textiles is pleased to announce that the company's CEO, Tom Gildred, was named a finalist in the San Diego Business Journal's Most Admired CEO awards. The annual award recognizes local industry leaders who have taken the lead in driving their business and the local economy. This is Gildred's second nomination as finalist; he won the SDBJ Most Admired CEO in 2011.

"It is quite an honor to be recognized as a finalist with this group of executives who are leading San Diego's business community," said Gildred. "One of the most exciting aspects of this event is the opportunity to hear from other leaders who are making an impact in our city, and I am very pleased to represent Emerald Textiles on behalf of our entire team."

The Most Admired CEO Awards event will be held on February 18, 2016, at the Town and Country Resort and Convention Center. Winners will be announced in various categories, such as public company, privately held company, nonprofit, government agency and education.

See the full list of finalists here.

About Emerald Textiles

Emerald Textiles provides the most environmentally responsible, high quality, linen rental and management solution for the Southern California healthcare industry. Emerald's two facilities are located in the greater Los Angeles and San Diego areas and serve hospitals throughout Southern California and across the eastern corridor to Palm Desert. Emerald utilizes the most advanced technology and provides a higher standard of cleanliness, industry compliance and customer satisfaction.

For more information about Emerald Textiles and its services, please visit EmeraldUS.com